

mInfo™ delivers critical business information to key employees via their mobile handset whenever they need it. Everyone from the CEO to a field salesperson can be provided with access to real-time data feeds enabling them and their clients to make better and more informed decisions based on up-to-date, accurate information.

mInfo™ is a highly flexible solution that can be configured to provide a suitably tailored experience for different members of your organisation.

For example:-

- a salesperson will want detailed information pertaining to their key clients
- the finance director will need a summarised list of KPIs
- the CEO will require an "Executive Dashboard" which provides an instant view of their organisation's "health", highlighting problem areas requiring immediate attention

Each individual has an instant view of pertinent information, relevant to their role.

mInfo™ provides timely information, directly via a mobile handset. With today's increasingly sophisticated smartphones and high-speed data connections you don't need to be sitting at your PC to access the information and systems you have come to rely on – with mInfo™ you can be truly mobile and still have access to everything you need.
